1. INTRODUCTION

The Tamil University, Thanjavur was established in 1981 as an institution of higher learning for undertaking advanced level of research in Tamil Studies and various branches of Humanities, Social Sciences and Sciences. The Tamil University focuses on training young students and researchers in various areas of Tamilology, apart from advanced research in humanities, social sciences, and sciences that are relevant for the study and development of Tamil culture, language, literature, diaspora and the contemporary society.

Doctor of Philosophy is a research programme that requires dedicated efforts and advanced research skills to produce original contribution to knowledge in a chosen area of research. The doctoral programme of the Tamil University seeks to equip the researchers with advanced skills to undertake independent research and to develop a research career in various subjects. The degree of Doctor of Philosophy is awarded to a researcher who has successfully completed the programme requirements as specified by these regulations; submitted a dissertation based on original research, and on the basis of the recommendations of a duly constituted panel of examiners, for evaluating the dissertation.

In the case of IITS/PILC and other Recognised centres, its Director (who shall be the chairperson) and eligible faculty members shall be in the committee along with a nominee from Tamil University. If the Department is only with one research supervisor, the DRC shall be constituted with the Dean Concerned and the Research Supervisor.

8.3.2. The Chairperson of the DRC shall be the Co-Ordinator for Ph.D. admission related issues of the department concerned.

8.3.3. If there is any issue either in the constitution or functioning of the Departmental Research Committee, then it shall be brought to the notice of the University administration and the decision of the Vice-Chancellor shall be final.

8.3.4. The DRC shall monitor the progress of the Research Scholars of the Department. The DRC shall meet once in six months and send a report on the progress of the candidate to the Registrar.

8.4. Research Advisory committee (RAC)

8.4.1. Research Advisory committee (RAC) shall monitor the progress of the Research Scholar and confirm the provisional registration.
8.4.2. Research Advisory Committee (RAC) is the Committee constituted for a particular research scholar (Full time or Part time Ph.D. Programmes) for monitoring the research progress, and the RAC will have four members, viz., Research Supervisor, Chairperson of the DRC, Dean of the Faculty and one Subject expert to be recommended by the research supervisor for the approval of the university. In case of inter-disciplinary research, co-supervisor will be one among the subject expert(s).

8.4.3. RAC has to be constituted within three months from the date of admission of the research scholar.

8.4.4. Research Advisory Committee shall be constituted by the Vice Chancellor inviting panel of experts from the research supervisor with their biodata. Assistant Professors, Associate Professors and Professors with five years of regular service and obtained recognition for supervisorship from any recognised University and have published two papers/book in the broad subject area of Ph.D. are eligible to be part of the Research Advisory committee. The Research Supervisor has to certify that the members of the panel have published two papers or books each in the broad subject area and are eligible to be a part of the Research Advisory Committee.

8.4.5. Research Supervisor will be the convenor of the RAC. The report shall be submitted to The Registrar through proper channel. The RAC will be valid till the submission of the dissertation. If the External Expert withdraws from the committee, a new member may be appointed by the Vice Chancellor.

8.4.6. The Research Advisory Committee shall meet thrice during the tenure of Ph.D. of a candidate: firstly, during the selection of the topic and framing of the syllabus for the coursework; secondly, when the topic is finalised after the completion of the course work; and finally, during the Pre-Ph.D. Oral Presentation (PPOP) of the Ph.D. research work. When the topic of the student is finalised the Research Advisory Committee shall decide on the subject of the Ph.D. and the specialization. Once the title and the subject are approved, no change would be permitted.

9. ADMISSION PROCEDURE AND STUDENT ALLOTMENT

9.1. Admission Procedure

9.1.1. Admission to the Ph.D. Programmes shall be undertaken through a centralised process by the Ph.D. Admission Committee comprising of the 1) Dean of the Faculty, 2) Chairperson of the DRC, and 3) members of the Department, who are research supervisors and have Ph.D. seats vacant for the current session.

9.1.2. The merit list for admission shall be prepared by taking 70 percent of TURCET Score and 30 percent from interview. The average of the marks out of 30 awarded by all the members of the Admission Committee shall be considered for preparing the merit list.

9.1.3. The committee shall check and verify the papers of the candidates and prepare a list of candidates based on PG Marks, M.Phil. marks and UGC-NET/SLET qualifications of the candidates and score in TURCET and the interview marks

9.1.4. From the merit list admission will be given as per available vacancies.

9.1.5. The merit list would be valid till the closure of admission.
9.1.6 The admitted students shall pay the fees and the list of admitted students shall be sent to the department concerned. The DRC shall meet on a date specified by the University to allot the students to the Research Supervisors.

9.2. Student Allotment

9.2.1 The DRC shall allot the candidates to the supervisors based on the area of specialization, the interest of the students. The faculty members of the department can mutually discuss and allot the students. If there is no consensus among the faculty members, allocation shall be made based on the seniority of the teachers. For example, if there are two vacancies for each supervisor then the senior-most faculty shall be allotted the first rank holder and the last rank holder. The next senior-most faculty shall be allotted the second-rank and the last-but one rank.

10. RESEARCH IN INTER-DISCIPLINARY AREAS

10.1. Candidates shall normally be eligible for registration into Ph.D. Programme in the subject in which he/she has obtained Master's Degree. It shall, however, be open to a candidate to apply for admission to a doctoral programme in a related subject. When the candidate registers for Ph.D. in a subject different from his / her Master's degree, the candidate shall be given Ph.D. Degree as decided by the Departmental Research Committee at the time of seat allotment and/or based on the recommendation of the Research Advisory Committee at the time of finalization of the topic of research. This shall be subject to the norms laid down by the BOS of the Department.

10.2. Ph.D. students working in interdisciplinary areas of research shall have a co-supervisor.
10.3. A scholar provisionally registered for the Ph.D. degree should not register for any other degree in any university in a regular or part-time programme; however, one parallel PG programme in Distance Mode may be allowed at a time. The research scholar can also register for not more than two certificate / diploma programmes of one-year duration through Distance mode.

11. Duration of Ph.D. Programme

11.1. Full-time
A candidate registered as a full-time scholar for Ph.D. programme shall work continuously in the department under the research supervisor for a minimum period of three years.

11.2. Part-time
A candidate registered for Ph.D. programme under part-time category shall work for a minimum period of four years from the date of registration and a maximum period of 7 years to submit the dissertation.

11.3. Exemption
Exemption of one year from the minimum duration period shall be permissible in respect of candidates who possess an M.Phil. (in the relevant/related subject) at the time of registration based on the recommendation of the RAC.

11.4. Candidates holding dual Master’s Degrees and one M.Phil. Degree, but in different disciplines shall not be exempted from appearing for the Research Methodology paper. The M.Phil. Degree has to be in the relevant discipline. This shall be decided by the Research Advisory Committee.
11.5. The women candidates and persons with disability (more than 40% disability) may be allowed a relaxation of two years for Ph.D. as the maximum duration. In addition, the women candidates may be provided Maternity Leave / Child Care Leave once in the entire duration of Ph.D. or up to 240 days.

11.6. The following table consolidates the duration of Ph.D. program

* Relaxation of 1 year for women candidates who take maternity leave and persons with disability (more than 40% disability).

11.7. Cancellation of Registration and Extension

Ph.D. registration shall be automatically cancelled after a period of 6 years, i.e., the maximum period, from the date of registration. Two extensions of six months each can be given on a request with valid reason after the maximum period. Letter for extension should be sent one month prior to the expiry of the maximum period or the extension period of the earlier extension granted, along with fees and Research Supervisor’s specific recommendation on the progress of the student, duly forwarded through proper channel. Otherwise, the registration is liable to be cancelled without any prior notice to the candidates.
11.8. Re-Registration

The scholars who could not complete the Ph.D. within the prescribed maximum time limit (including two extensions) will be given a chance to re-register for Ph.D. with the prescribed fee by the University time to time provided that they continue on the same topic, under the same Research Supervisor with the specific recommendations of the research supervisor on the progress of the research, with concrete evidence of draft dissertation, as the case may be. These re-registered scholars shall be permitted to submit the dissertation not later than one year after the re-registration.

11.9. Special Extension

Special extension may be granted on health grounds, maternity related and other inevitable cases on humanitarian grounds. The Vice-Chancellor’s decision is final.

12. ELIGIBILITY FOR RESEARCH SUPERVISORSHIP AND PROCEDURE FOR RECOGNITION

12.1. The teachers who are in regular teaching service in Tamil University can apply for Research Supervisorship if they fulfil the following eligibility conditions:

a) Completion of two years of continuous service in Tamil University and two years since the award of Ph.D. degree, whichever is later.

b) A minimum of two papers, after the completion of Ph.D., as specified in UGC CARE listed journals or Book Chapters. Note: Such papers should not be a short note or just two-page publication in a popular journal. Notes and Communications of shorter nature in UGC listed journals are acceptable and internationally recognised Journals with Scopus or other rating. The copies of two best research papers published should be attached with the application.
12.2. Faculty members who are appointed at Tamil University have prior experience of guiding in other institutions; they can apply for Research Supervisorship, immediately after joining The Tamil University.

12.3. The Research supervisors of The Tamil University and recognized institutions shall not act as a Research Supervisor in any other research institution. Similarly, teachers who are working in other institutions cannot act as Research Supervisors in The Tamil University. This rule shall not be applicable to faculty members who are on lien or who have moved from The Tamil University to other university.

12.4. The faculty members who are employed on full time, regular basis in The Tamil University should apply through proper channel to the Registrar in the prescribed format, with necessary enclosures.

12.5. Research Supervisorship shall not be granted to the faculty members who are working as Guest Lecturers or on part-time basis.

12.6. Scholars/Scientists/Researchers who are employed on a regular basis in a Govt. institute of Regional/ National Institutions /or Research Laboratories, which are recognized as Research Centres by The Tamil University, and who have completed a minimum of two years of service and the necessary publications as listed above can apply for Research supervisorship under The Tamil University.

12.7. A Research Supervisor shall act as a supervisor only in the main subject in which he/she has obtained Ph.D. In a subject related to the subject of the supervisor or the subject of the department or inter-disciplinary in nature, he/she may supervise with a co-supervisor, who is a recognised supervisor in a UGC recognised University or The Tamil University.
12.8. In a subject related to the Ph.D. subject of the Research supervisor and the department, after successfully supervising three Ph.D. Dissertation with co-supervisors, a Research Supervisor may guide independently (without co-supervisors) with the permission of the University administration.

12.9. The teacher shall continue to be the Research Supervisor only in the department in which he/she is working and if necessary, they may supervise in other departments related to their area of research. However, such a teacher shall not be a member of DRC of the other department. If a Supervisor supervises the subject of another regular department existing in The Tamil University; the syllabus for methodology will be prepared by the regular department concerned. If there is any issue, the decision of the URC shall be final.

12.10. Those teachers who are qualified for research supervisorship in a particular subject, but work in a different department are eligible to supervise in their own subject. If a department, related to the subject of Ph.D., does not exist in The Tamil University, the Board of Studies of the Department shall have experts from that subject. For science subjects, except mathematics Research Advisory Committee as per the requirement of the research topic shall recommend for the duration of laboratory work or otherwise. The RAC shall certify that the work has sufficient ground and validity for degree in the science subject concerned.

12.11. Re-applying for Research Supervisorship after Rejection

The faculty member, whose application for Research Supervisorship is rejected, may submit a fresh application after a gap of one-year duration or as soon as they have fulfilled the eligibility conditions for the recognition.
12.12. Maximum number of candidates (both full-time and part-time) under a Research Supervisor (as per UGC Guidelines)

12.13. The Supervisor shall be required to give a declaration to this effect at the time of registration of new Ph.D. candidates that she/he has only specific number of students. However, in the context of inevitable and unforeseen circumstances (transfer of a faculty member or otherwise), the Vice Chancellor may decide otherwise.

12.14. A Research Supervisor, who is recognized for the doctoral degree, can supervise the M.Phil. Students in the recognised subjects.

12.15. A Research Supervisor who is recognized for the doctoral degree can act as a Co-supervisor in his/her subject.

12.16. There is no restriction on the number of research candidates as a Co-supervisor.

12.17. If a Research Supervisor gets appointment in another institution, the full-time and part-time research students of the Research Supervisor may continue to undertake research with her/his supervision. The student will have an option to continue with the relocated supervisor or change the supervisor, provided that the supervisor concerned has vacancies.

12.18. If a Research Supervisor who is permanently relocated (not when on lien) to an institution, is not willing the supervise the students, they may be transferred to another supervisor.
12.19. In the case discussed in 12.17, a co-supervisor may also be appointed for the students of the Research Supervisor who is relocating in another institution, with the consent of the Student and the Research Supervisor.

13. CHANGE OF RESEARCH SUPERVISOR

13.1. Normally change of Research Supervisor shall not be entertained without a valid reason.

13.2. A student may request for the change of Research Supervisor, but the University will permit such a change, only if there is a valid reason, subject to the consent of the present supervisor and willingness of the proposed research Supervisor with the recommendations of the DRC. The Vice Chancellor’s decision is final on this matter.

13.3. Change of Research Supervisor may be considered, if the Research supervisor is on long leave (6 months or more) or has ceased to be a faculty in the Department.

13.4. Change of Research Supervisor may also be recommended by the Research Supervisor and may also be independently decided by the Vice Chancellor if there is any issue.

13.5. In case, a faculty member ceased to be the member of a department because of retirement or other reasons, the students may be transferred to another supervisor of the department or others in the relevant subject.
14. REGISTRATION OF CANDIDATES BEFORE RETIREMENT OF RESEARCH SUPERVISOR

The Research Supervisors cannot register new candidates for Ph.D. Degree, two years prior to their date of retirement.

14.1. Status of the Students after the Retirement of a Teacher:

After the retirement of a Supervisor, he/she is eligible to continue as a Research Supervisor for the existing students or he/she may recommend for a Co-supervisor for the existing research candidates from the same subject/dept before his/her retirement.

14.2. Blood-related Students:

A faculty member cannot serve as a Research Supervisor or Co-supervisor for the blood related candidates. The supervisor shall provide a declaration that the research student is not blood-related to the supervisor.

15. Course Work and Monitoring

15.1. Course-work for Full-time and Part-time Ph.D. students:

Students shall undergo Ph.D. Course Work after provisional registration, as a part of Ph.D. programme in the first year. The course-work should be treated as pre-Ph.D. preparation. The Ph.D. students must undergo courses as prescribed by the Board of Studies and, (for Paper III) the RAC of the department concerned. The coursework shall be conducted by the Controller of Examinations. The course work shall be evaluated for an internal assessment of 25% and a final written examination of 75%. Each Course-work shall have 4 credits. The course work shall be related to the subject in which the students undertake Ph.D. research.
15.2. The Ph.D. registration shall be confirmed only after the completion of the Ph.D. course-work. The final Ph.D. Course work examinations shall be conducted by the Controller of Examinations based on the recommendation of the RAC. The Course-work examination shall be conducted twice in a year, i.e., in May and December along with the PG semester Exams.

15.3. The course work shall include three Core courses, one skill oriented course, and publication of two research papers in UGC listed Journals and/or book chapters of original contribution, and two paper presentations in a conference/seminar/workshop.

15.4. Course and Credit Requirements for PhD. Degree Programme

15.4.1. The course work is compulsory for both full-time and part-time students. The schedules for course work shall be prepared by the department.

15.4.2. The required credits for Ph.D. Course Work are: 20, as listed below

Total Credits 20
15.4.3. The courses shall be in conformity with the credit hours, instructional requirement and shall specify the content, instruction and assessment methods.

15.4.4. Core Course 1 Research Method The Core course 1 shall have general Research Methods related to subject and/or the Department. This course could cover quantitative methods, computer applications, research ethics and review of published work, as framed by the Board of Studies.

15.4.5. Course 2 shall be on the broad areas of subject. The Board of Studies of the department concerned shall identify the broad subject areas (three to 4 areas) of the subject in conformity with subject of the Ph.D. Programme. The relevant subject areas shall be prescribed for the course work by the RAC.

15.4.6. Course 3 shall be related to the research topic. The syllabus for the course shall be prescribed by the RAC.

15.4.7. Course 4 is related to skill development. The course work for the skill development course shall be organised for both fulltime and part time students by the University through a coordinator.

15.4.8. All the question papers for the course work subjects shall be set and valued by the external examiners, except course 3, for which the Research Supervisor is responsible.

15.5. M.Phil. Students, who have completed their course, may be exempted from Research Methodology, Broad Subject Area and General Skills, if they have completed the course within two academic years prior to their date of registration. For, example, if their Ph.D. registration is in 2019-20, they should have submitted the M.Phil. thesis in 2017-18 or 2018-19 (July to June, academic session). The RAC shall decide on the course work and if the Broad Subject course is to be exempted.

15.6. The completion of course work or Part I exam shall be in the first year for the full-time students in the end of second semester and in the end of second year for part-time students. The schedule for the course work classes both for full-time and part-time shall be prepared by the chairperson of DRC and displayed in the notice board and informed to the part-time students well in advance.

15.7. After successful completion of course work, RAC shall recommend the research scholar to get the confirmation of Ph.D. Registration, in order to proceed further in their respective research work.

15.8. A research scholar has to publish a minimum of two research articles in UGC listed journals/or Book Chapters approved (2 Publications) and has to present research papers in two National or international conferences (2 presentations).

15.9. Once the scholar gets the confirmation of her/his Ph.D. registration, and has published two research articles in journal and participated in conferences (National/International), then research supervisor can convene the Pre-Ph.D. Oral Presentation (PPOP) meeting for the particular candidate, from six months prior to the minimum period of Ph.D. Research Programme. The Research scholar has to present his/her entire research progress, chapterization and the research papers published in the presence of Dean, Chairperson of DRC and RAC. All the teachers and students of the department shall also take part in the presentation. RAC will review, suggest modification and recommend the scholar’s research based on the PPOP meeting for submitting the dissertation within a stipulated time, if the research progress is satisfactory. If the RAC is not satisfactory of the research progress, then the student has to resubmit the progress of research after 6 months.

15.10. Attendance

15.10.1. The attendance rules are applicable to all Indian, foreign and NRI research scholars.

15.10.2. Seventy-five per cent (75 %) attendance is compulsory for the students to undertake doctoral research under full-time category. Absence for a period of three months continuously without prior permission and issuance of notice shall lead to cancellation of the registration.

15.10.3. Attendance of 30 working days in an academic year for part-time students is required during the minimum period of Ph.D. Research; i.e. a total of 120 days.

15.10.4. The thirty days of attendance for part-time research scholar could be in the period of vacation or the candidate may take leave from the place of employment to complete the course work. The evidence for attendance shall be produced by the Research Supervisor or a certificate of attendance from the Librarian of the Tamil University Library may be produced.

15.10.5. If a part-time Research Scholar fails to attend the programme in the first year, he/she has to complete the attendance within the minimum period. Continuous absence for two consecutive years by the part-time scholar shall lead to cancellation of registration.
15.11. The research student has to submit six-monthly progress report to the University and the same shall be forwarded by the Supervisor to the registrar.

15.12. During the research, the candidate may not spend more than one year in an institution outside the Tamil University for research purpose such as laboratory work and sample analysis.

15.13. Medium of Instruction

15.13.1. The medium of the Programme shall be in Tamil.

15.13.2. However, students from other states may submit the dissertation in English.

15.13.3. In the Departments of the Science Faculty, the RAC may recommend whether the medium of the course work and dissertation has to be in Tamil or English. With the recommendation of RAC, permission of the Tamil University administration shall be obtained for writing the dissertation in English.

15.13.4. For English subjects in Translation Department and the English Language Teaching related topics in Education department, the dissertation may be submitted in English.

15.13.5. If the dissertation is submitted in English, a 30-page abstract in Tamil shall be appended to the dissertation. However, if a student wishes he/she may submit the dissertation both in Tamil as well as English.
15.13.6. If the dissertation is in English, one research paper related to Ph.D. subject has to be published in Tamil and two papers have to be published in English as per UGC requirements. This rule is applicable to students who have knowledge of Tamil and studied Tamil in Graduation as a subject.

16. SUBMISSION OF SYNOPSIS

16.1. Synopsis submission shall be after Pre-Ph.D. Oral Presentation (PPOP). The recommendations and suggestions given by the RAC during the presentations have to be incorporated in the dissertation. The Research Supervisor shall issue a certificate in this regard.

16.2. Synopsis submission is permitted three months prior to the minimum period. The synopsis should include the following components in 10-15 pages:

a) Title of the dissertation
b) Previous Research/Review of Literature and Current State of Knowledge in global context
c) Definition of the problem/Objectives and scope of research work
d) Methods
e) Results and discussions
f) Chapterisation
g) Conclusions
h) Tamil Translation of the same if the dissertation is in English
